Dedication

Mr. George R. Brumfield

During his two years at B.H.S. Mr. Brumfield has done an excellent job both as school counselor and as sponsor of the National Honor Society. As a Senior sponsor he has won the friendship and respect of each member of the Class of 1967.

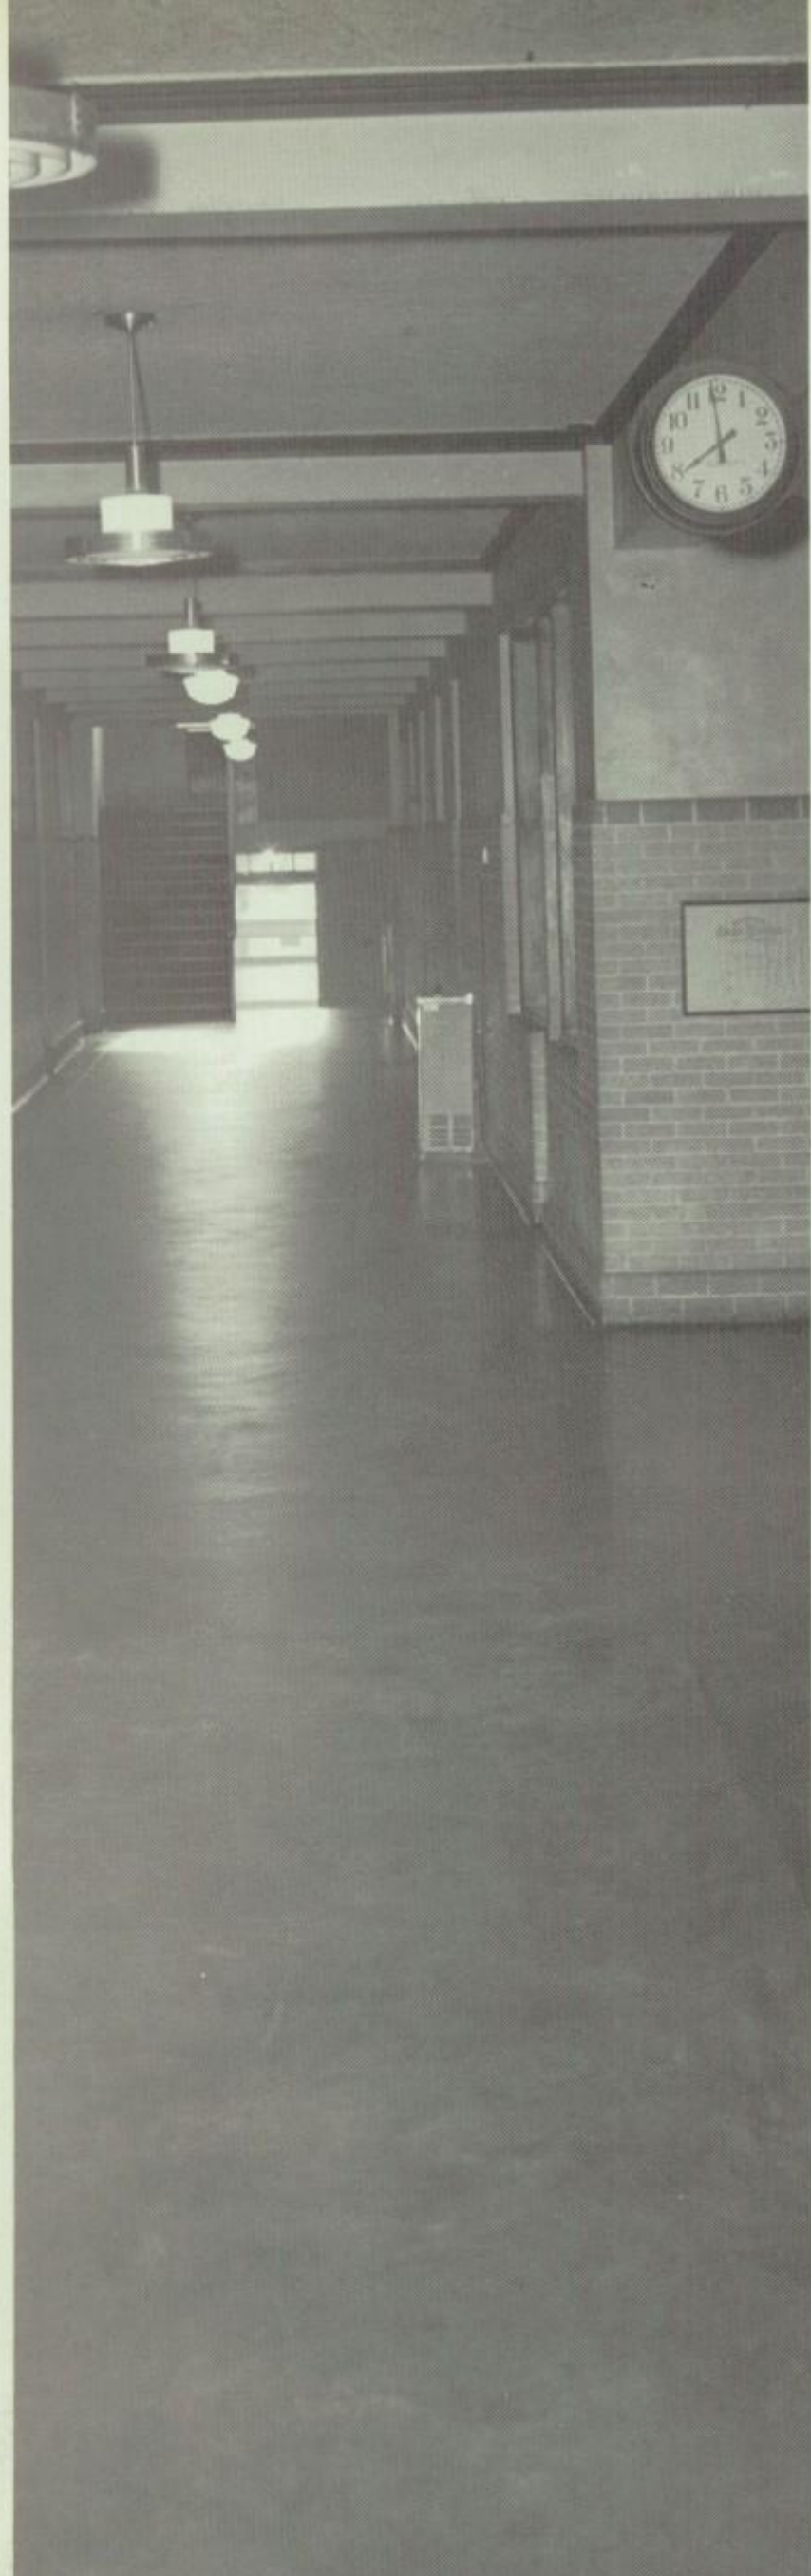

So the Senior Class of 1967 is both proud and honored to dedicate the 1967 Edition of the OLE BROOK to Mr. George R. Brumfield--interested and helpful counselor, active sponsor, and friend.

THE 1967 OLE BROOK-- SKETCH BOOK OF A YEAR

We may not have been Picassos, Rembrandts, or da Vincis, but in this yearbook we have drawn one of the most interesting murals that you will ever see. Beginning last September, our pencils have sketched in vivid colors the days filled with various and sundry activities of a great year--1967.

Getting organized as classes, holding elections, making preparations for Homecoming, presenting the Senior play, enjoying dances and Senior parties have all added their own interesting perspectives which, combined with others, form a pictorial history of '67. Each day has added a little more--if only a line. Here it is--all in one fantastic sketch! Think back and try to remember as it is recreated day by day in....

A Daily Challenge*

The Great Escape!

Challenges to scholarship, to participation, to friendship--all summoned us to action at B.H.S. this past year.

The challenges to scholarship were perhaps the greatest of all because each day was literally filled with them in the form of tests, assignments, and lectures.

In the challenges to participation we were faced with deciding which activities would best fit us. Then we jumped in with both feet and tried to make them successful. The record speaks for itself.

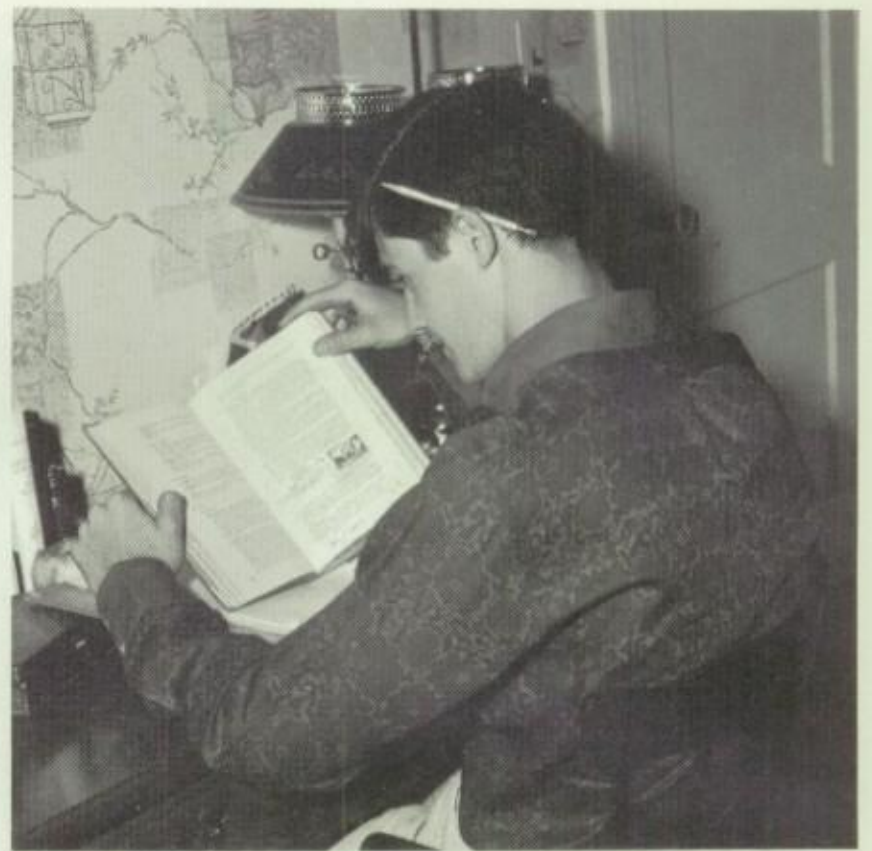

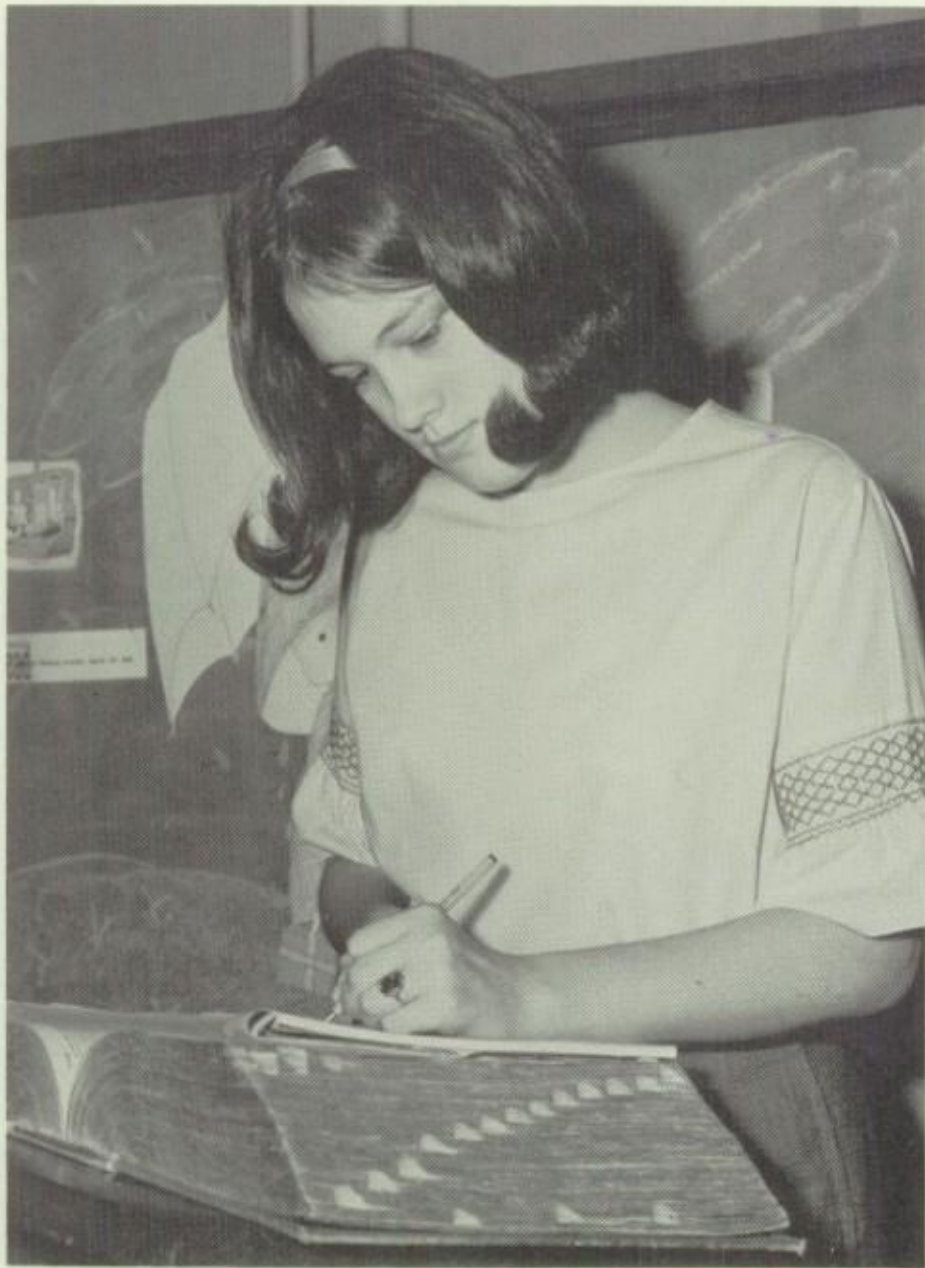

There were challenges to friendship. As we strengthened ties with old friends and made new ones, we realized that these were the ties that would bind us to B.H.S. and to our classmates for years to come.

Our Lives For The Future

A sketch of this past year would be incomplete without mentioning study, Though there were sports, clubs, and other extra-curricular activities at B.H.S., study was expected of each student.

Through the influence of an excellent, dedicated faculty, we were all exposed to a wide-spread curricula which allowed each student to prepare for his individual future.

This year many students realized the necessity of study. There were term papers, lectures, book tests, and finally exams--all to enhance our chances of future success.

Students make use of valuable time in the library.

Activities—

A Welcome Highlight

Our most active student organization in '67 was the Student Council.

Halftime

The McComb game was a "mumorable" occasion.

Have you ever stopped to realize how dull school would be without extra-curricular activities?

The clubs at B.H.S. ranged from our student government to those which best fit our abilities and interests.

For those of an athletic nature, B.H.S. had a well-rounded sports program. With football, baseball, basketball, tennis, and track teams, B.H.S. offered a sport for every student.

In fact, there is something for everyone at B.H.S.

Henry, like other active Seniors, worked in the concession stand.

Friendship— A Natural Happening

Friendships were easily made at B.H.S. in '66-'67. There was a warmth --a feeling of unity among those of our student body.

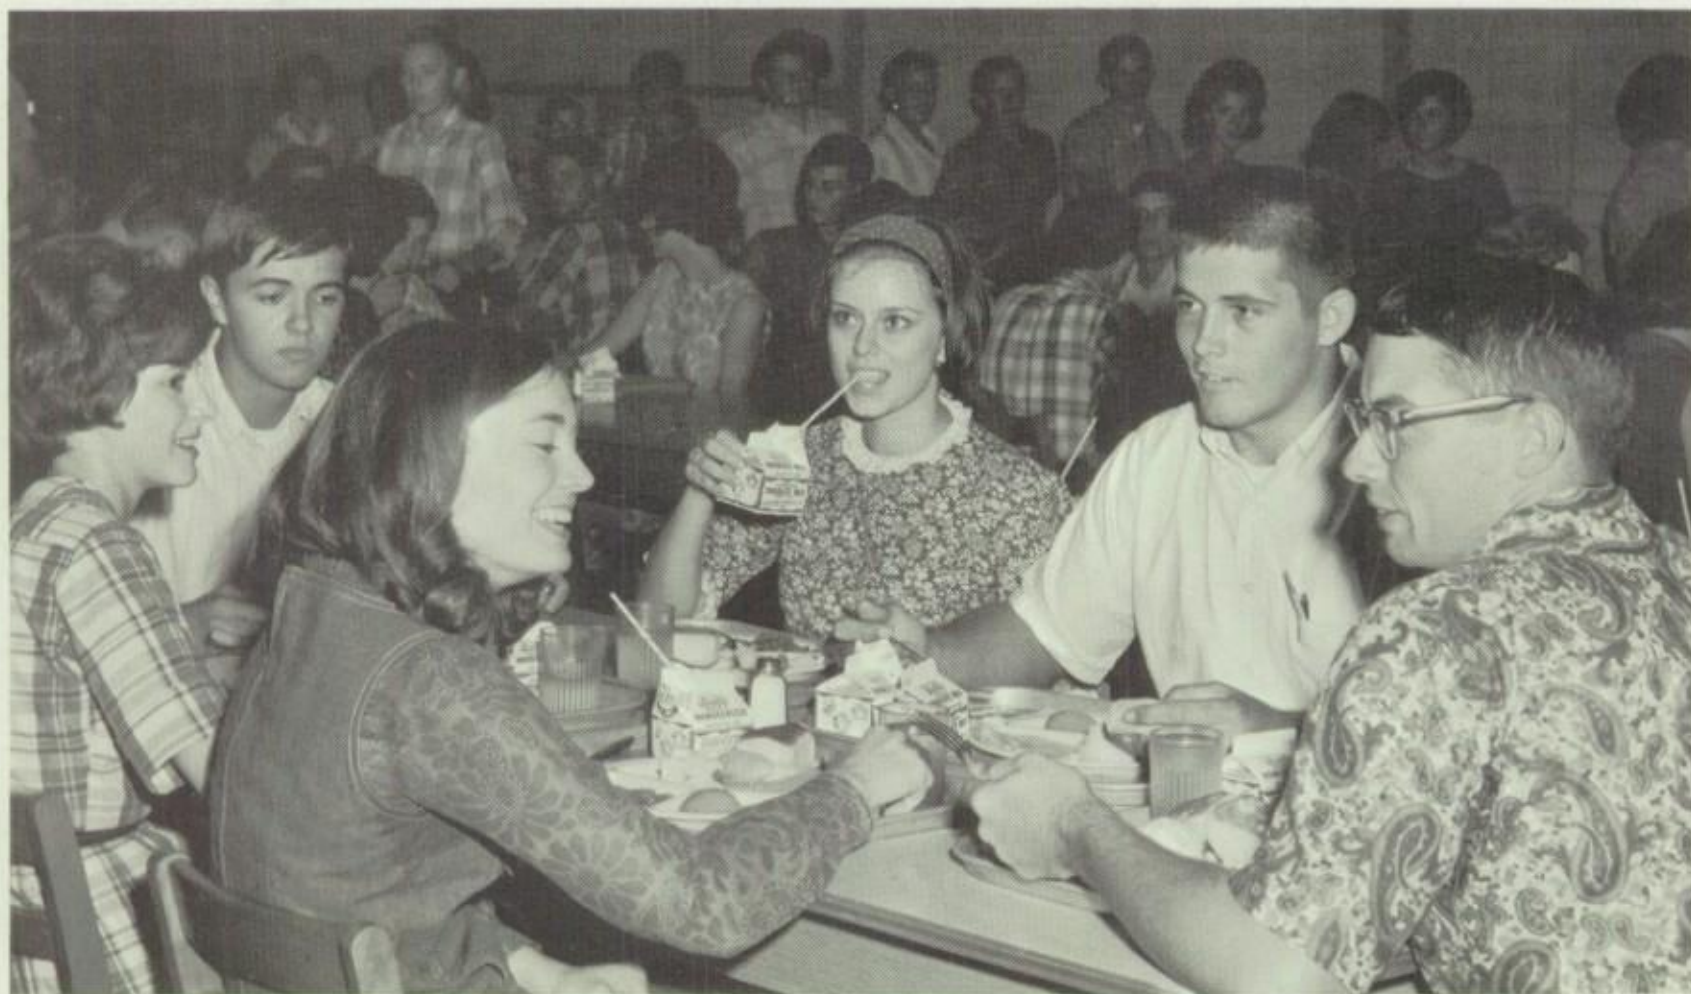

Although our relationship with one another might have been no more than a casual smile, it came naturally and not from a sense of necessity. Our freedom in the selection of our friends was stimulated by the similarity and variety of interests and ideas represented in our students. We were able to seek out and find for ourselves the places which we desired and in which we would be happy.

No great effort had to be made, nor any fake emotions manufactured for things to happen this way. We simply tried to see the good in others and understand their weaknesses along with our own.

The daily rush between classes

Sharing food and chit-chat was done daily in the cafeteria.

Generally speaking, Mary Joyce was generally speaking.

Seniors displayed hospitality to Governor and Mrs. Johnson.

"Next week is Twirp week, Gary. "

Mornings were filled with a constant struggle to get to school. Then, after brief chats with our friends, the 8:00 bell would begin another day.

After a long 430 minutes in school, the 3:10 bell would trigger the real beginning of our free time as each student went his separate way.

There were cokes at Monte's, dances, get-togethers at friends' homes, and the many other random activities which came....

The Class Of 1967

Here they are--those wonderful Seniors who with the help of their active sponsors have made this edition of the OLE BROOK possible. They were not only determined, hard workers, but also the gayest and best class ever!

Alma Mater

True to thee I shall always be,
Alma Mater, Brookhaven High School!
Proud am I, with my head held high,
Alma Mater, that you are my school.
Hail to thy student body, friends all true;
Hail to thy faculty so fine;
Long may thy children wave the red and blue;
Long may thy heritage be mine!
So I know that where 'ere I go from thy hallways
I shall for always, ever loudly, ever proudly,
Sing the praises of Brookhaven High!

English

At B.H.S. we study grammar, spelling, speech, and composition. Study in these areas gives each student the means with which to express himself and study the thoughts and aspirations of others.

We learn to enjoy and appreciate the great ideas of men and women which have guaranteed our right to think for ourselves.

We at B.H.S. are offered courses which enable each student to better understand the various branches of science. In biology we investigate the characteristics and habits of plants and animals. Chemistry investigates the reactions and properties of the elements. The behavior of matter and energy is studied in physics. Combined, these courses allow us to better explain and understand our environment.

In the social studies students learn of man's achievements through the ages. The formation of our great state is taught in Mississippi history, and economics leads to better understanding of our country's economy. The course in government shows us how our government operates and our responsibilities as citizens.

In industrial arts students are given technical vocational training. The understanding of mechanical drawing leads to careers in architecture and engineering.

ACTIVITIES

Last spring the following officers were elected by the student body to serve this year's Student Council: Shirley Owens, Treasurer; Leanne Adams, Secretary; Bob Flowers, President; Emelyn Robinson, Vice-President; Marolyn Kenney, Reporter.

The Student Council Encourages School Spirit

The B. H. S. student body is fortunate to have one of the most active Student Councils in the state. With Miss Mathison and Mrs. Catt serving as sponsors and Bob Flowers as president, our Council was constantly involved in many activities for the betterment of our school and community. At weekly meetings homeroom representatives presented and developed various projects, such as the sale of student identification cards. One of the highlights of the fall was the successful Council sponsored "Twirp Week".

Colorful hall decorations and an entire student body dressed in red and blue were the indications of the enthusiastic school spirit on the day of the McComb game.

During the Thanksgiving and Christmas seasons the Council made it possible for the students to help needy families. This year the Council represented our school with a prize winning Bob and the Council's sponsors Mrs. Catt and Miss Mathison planned many of the constructive activities in which the student body participated.

The members of the National Honor Society are selected by the B. H. S. faculty with the election being based on four areas: character, scholarship, service, and leadership.

The Society annually sponsors college night and presents each senior with a helpful pamphlet entitled "Off To College". The sponsor, Mr. George Brumfield, secures speakers for programs on subjects of student interest.

OFFICERS: Mr. Brumfield, sponsor, Vicki Brown, Laila Adams, Scotty Oberschmidt, Susan Safley.

College night is a beneficial service to Juniors and Seniors.

Y-Teens Contribute

Publicity plays an important part in Y-Teen projects.

Cindy Doolittle, Janice Grenn, Nancy Godbold, Gale Smith, Kathy Owens, Kathy Hatcher, and Lynne Holmes were delegates to the Y-Teen conference held at Camp Rockbrook.

Sponsors Miss Abernathy, Miss Johnson, Miss Philpot, and Mrs. Hunsucker often helped plan projects and offer good ideas.

Time And Energy To Worthwhile Activities

This year's officers served their clubs well

The Y-Teens are Christian girls in grades 9-12 who wish to grow as individual people, in friendship, and in knowledge and love of God. Each grade has its own club and sponsor.

Service, too, plays a large part in the Y-Teen program. Members annually sell hot chocolate and potato chips to raise money for such worthwhile projects as Christmas gifts for girls at Columbia Training School, money to support camps and related Y-Teen activities, and other school and community projects.

Packing and wrapping gifts for girls at Columbia Training School at Christmas are always fun.

Hi-Y

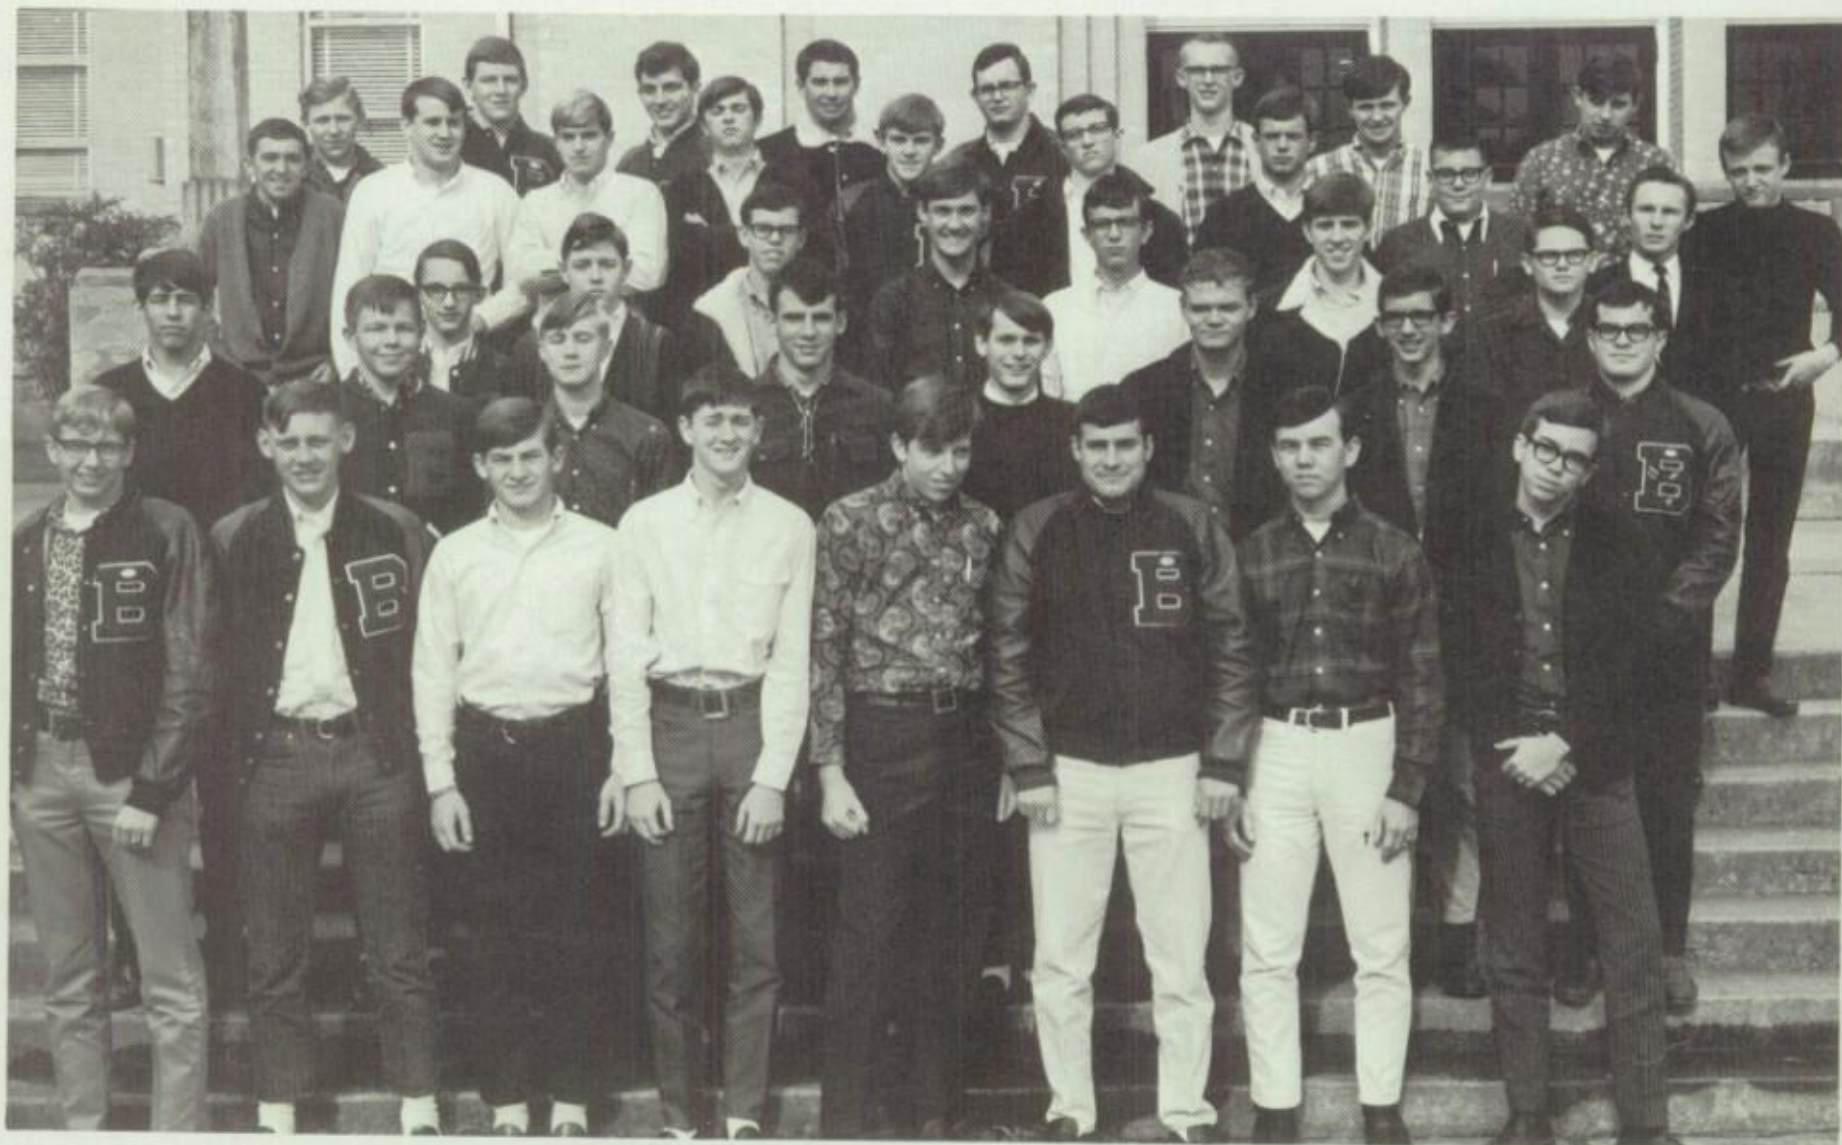

A worthy project-giving books to our library

OFFICERS: Gene Brown, Tommy Pepper, Mr. Wyatt, sponsor, Tom Pittman, Glen Shows.

The Hi-Y Club promotes the growth of Christian character in its members and attempts to extend it throughout the school and community. The programs of the club, designed to meet this end, may be in the form of a speaker, a discussion, or a skit based on one particular aspect of Christian living. At the meetings the club decides upon such projects as buying books of a religious nature for the library, taking a part in the Y. M. C. A. party for boys at Columbia Training School, and giving school devotionals. The Club is affiliated with and organized under the sponsorship of the State Y. M. C. A. of Mississippi and is under the new sponsorship of Mr. Jerry Wyatt.

The Hi-Y Club contributes to the development of tomorrow's leaders.

OFFICERS SEATED: Marianna Graves, Judy Tramel, Camille Smith, Dixie Hodges; STANDING: Sarah Gibson, Janice Rushing, Betty Bracey, Debbie Cupit, Vicki Smith, Wanda Laird.

The Future Homemakers of America are a group of B. H. S. girls interested in learning more about homemaking. Their meetings cover such areas as: personal living, fashions, moral and social values, and making money. The club is sponsored by Mrs. Elsie Graves, and it annually contributes to a Home Economics scholarship fund.

Learning to plan, cook, and serve meals is good experience for tomorrow's homemakers.

Good grooming is every girl's goal.

Members enjoy choosing styles and colors suitable to their figure type.

Latin Club

OFFICERS: Robert Fennell, Mike Case, Bettie Hatcher, Iddo Davis.

The primary purpose of the Latin Club is to arouse an increased interest in the ancient civilization at Rome. It is then hoped that the student will desire to learn more of that civilization.

The club is affiliated with the Junior Classical League and annually sends delegates to the state Latin meet. Mrs. Sadie J. Branch is the enthusiastic sponsor of the club.

Last year the Latin Department received statewide recognition for having the highest percentage of total student enrollment-taking Latin.

Latin Club meetings give members an appreciation of the Roman element in our culture.

We don't know what it means either.

OFFICERS: Terry Spearman, Mary Joyce Hinds, Phil Bein, Pam Spearman, Mrs. Spearman, sponsor.

Pinata fun for everyone.

Spanish Club

Scrambling for candy

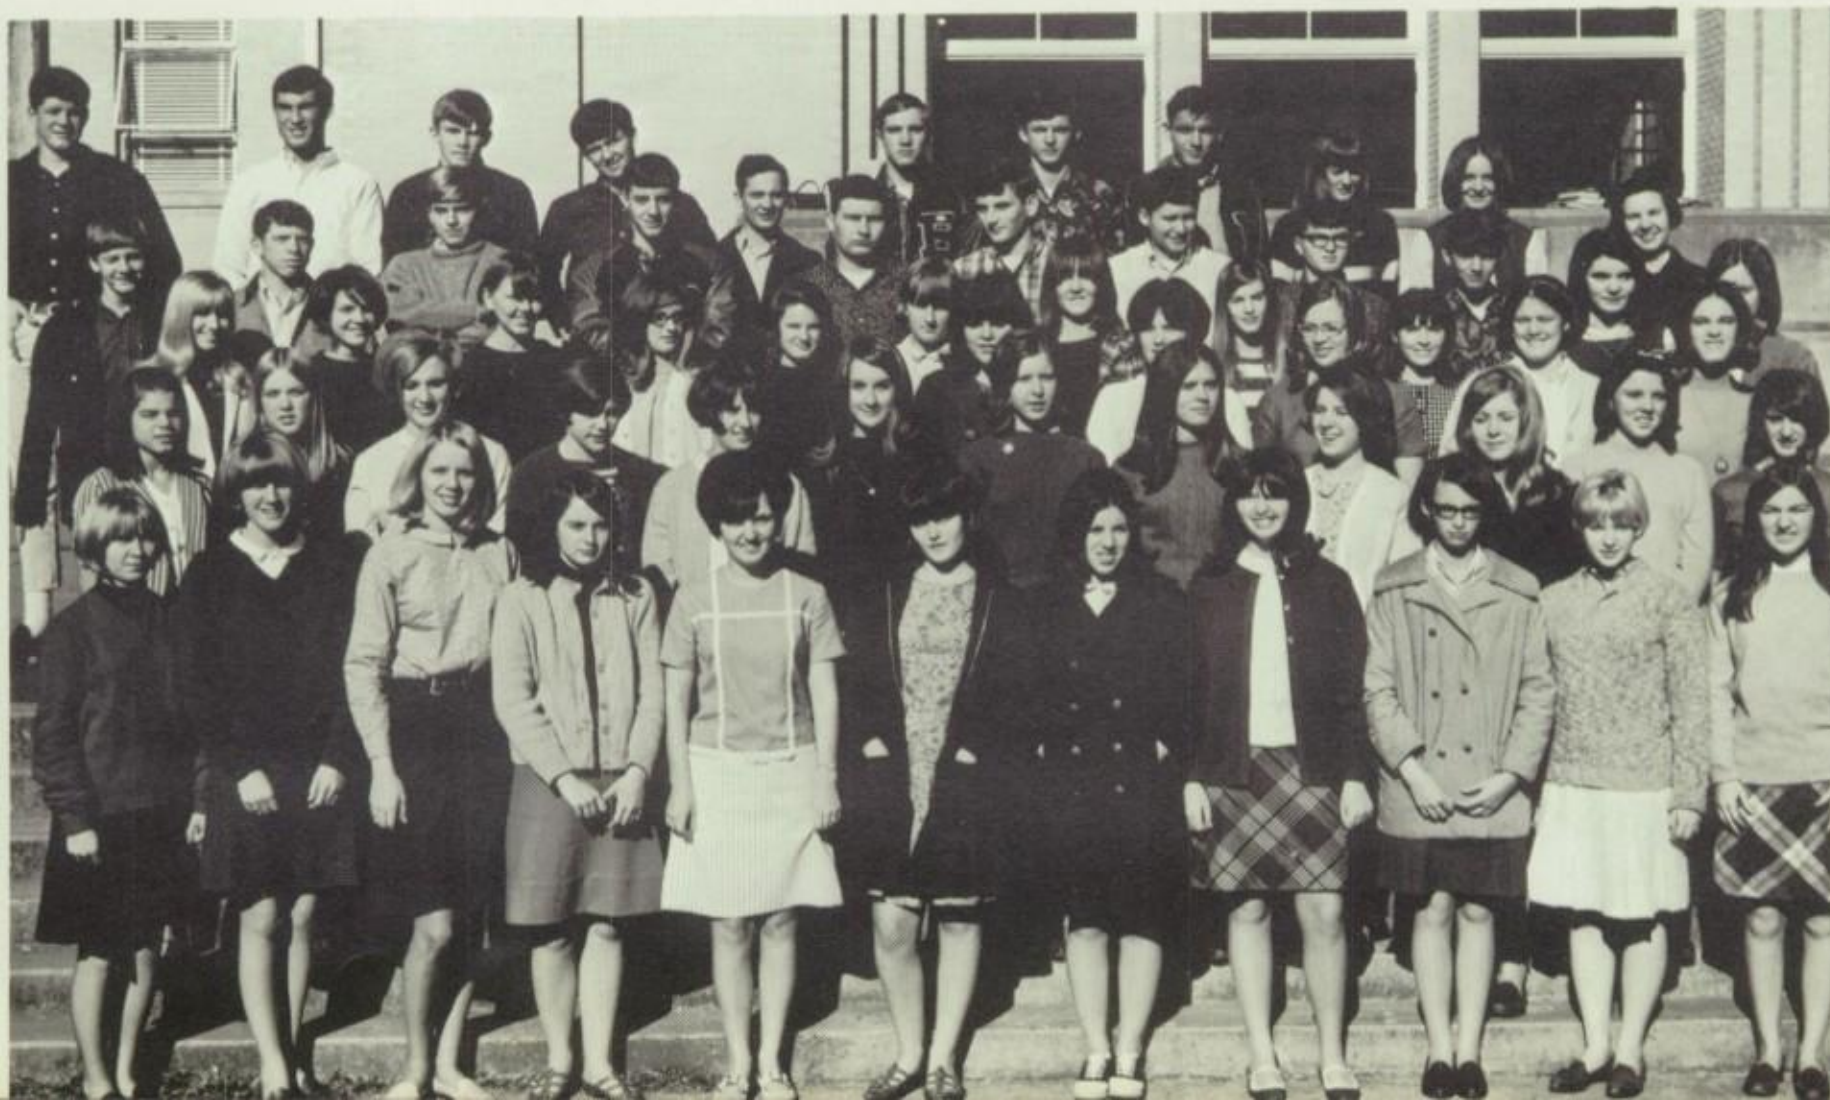

The Spanish Club is designed to teach its members of the customs and culture of Spanish-speaking countries. The members see films and hear tapes concerning life in Mexico and Spain.

Christmas was celebrated with a party featuring the pinata and the serving of hot chocolate, the national drink of Mexico.

This spring the club went to Mexico for a six day fling during the spring holidays.

Nos divertimos a las reuniones del Club de Español.

Business Education Club

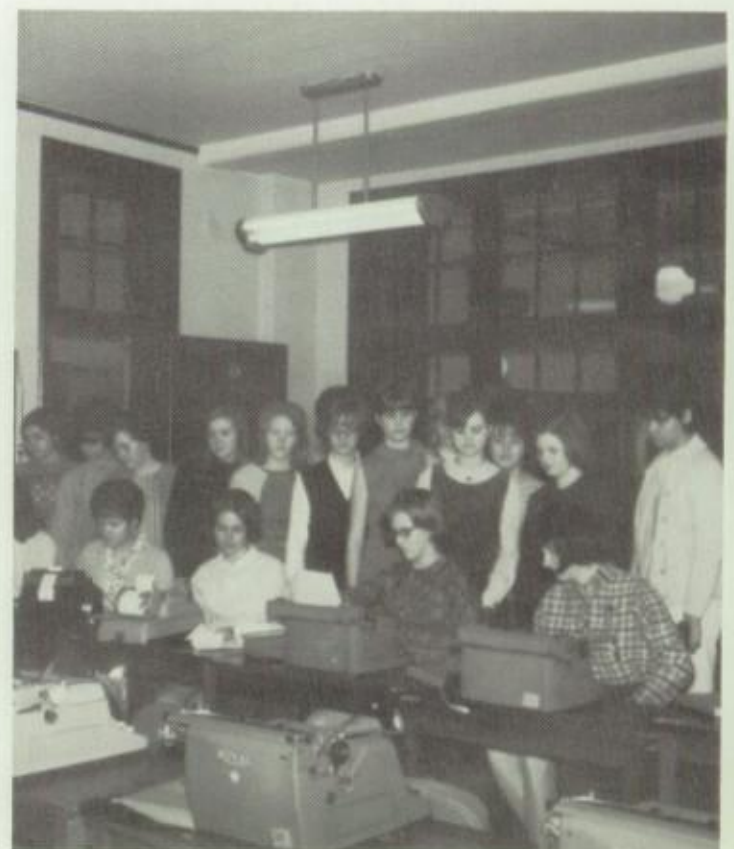

The B. B. Club offers its members programs designed to further educate them about various areas of the business world. The club is under the excellent sponsorship of Miss Bessie Jenkins, who helps to present educational programs and secure speakers who present informative talks. Members must be taking two business courses to qualify for membership. In these programs the students learn about banking, insurance, and helpful hints on efficient office management.

Members of the B. E. Club are prepared to face the business world.

OFFICERS: Cynthia Covington, Sylvia Smith, Judy Britt.

Learning about business machines is important.

Science Club

For students enrolled in biology, chemistry, and physics, B. H. S. has the Science Club. The club meetings are held on subjects of student interest, and they may range from films on the U. S. Space Programs to the demonstration of a laser by employees of the Bell System.

Last year the members were privileged to hear Mr. A. L. Becker, physics instructor and Annapolis graduate, present a talk on submarines. They also saw a film about our SAC Bases and the Dew Line and their importance to the defense of North America.

OFFICERS: Jimmy Miller, Pam Lippard, Miss Stevenson, sponsor, (SEATED): Jimmy Barnett, Tommy Pepper, Eddie Cross, Mr. Sasser, sponsor.

Famous scientists at work

Bored or fascinated?

The Science Club creates an interest in the scientific wonders of today.

The members of the Library Assistants Club enjoy working to improve methods and conditions in our school library.

Library Assistants Club

The Library Assistants Club is a group of hard working students who daily sacrifice their study periods in order to help Mrs. Sistrunk run the library in the most efficient manner possible. They shelve books, help students find books and articles, and check books in and out.

Meetings are intended to teach the members a love for books and the importance of taking care of them, and also to further explain the inner workings of library procedures.

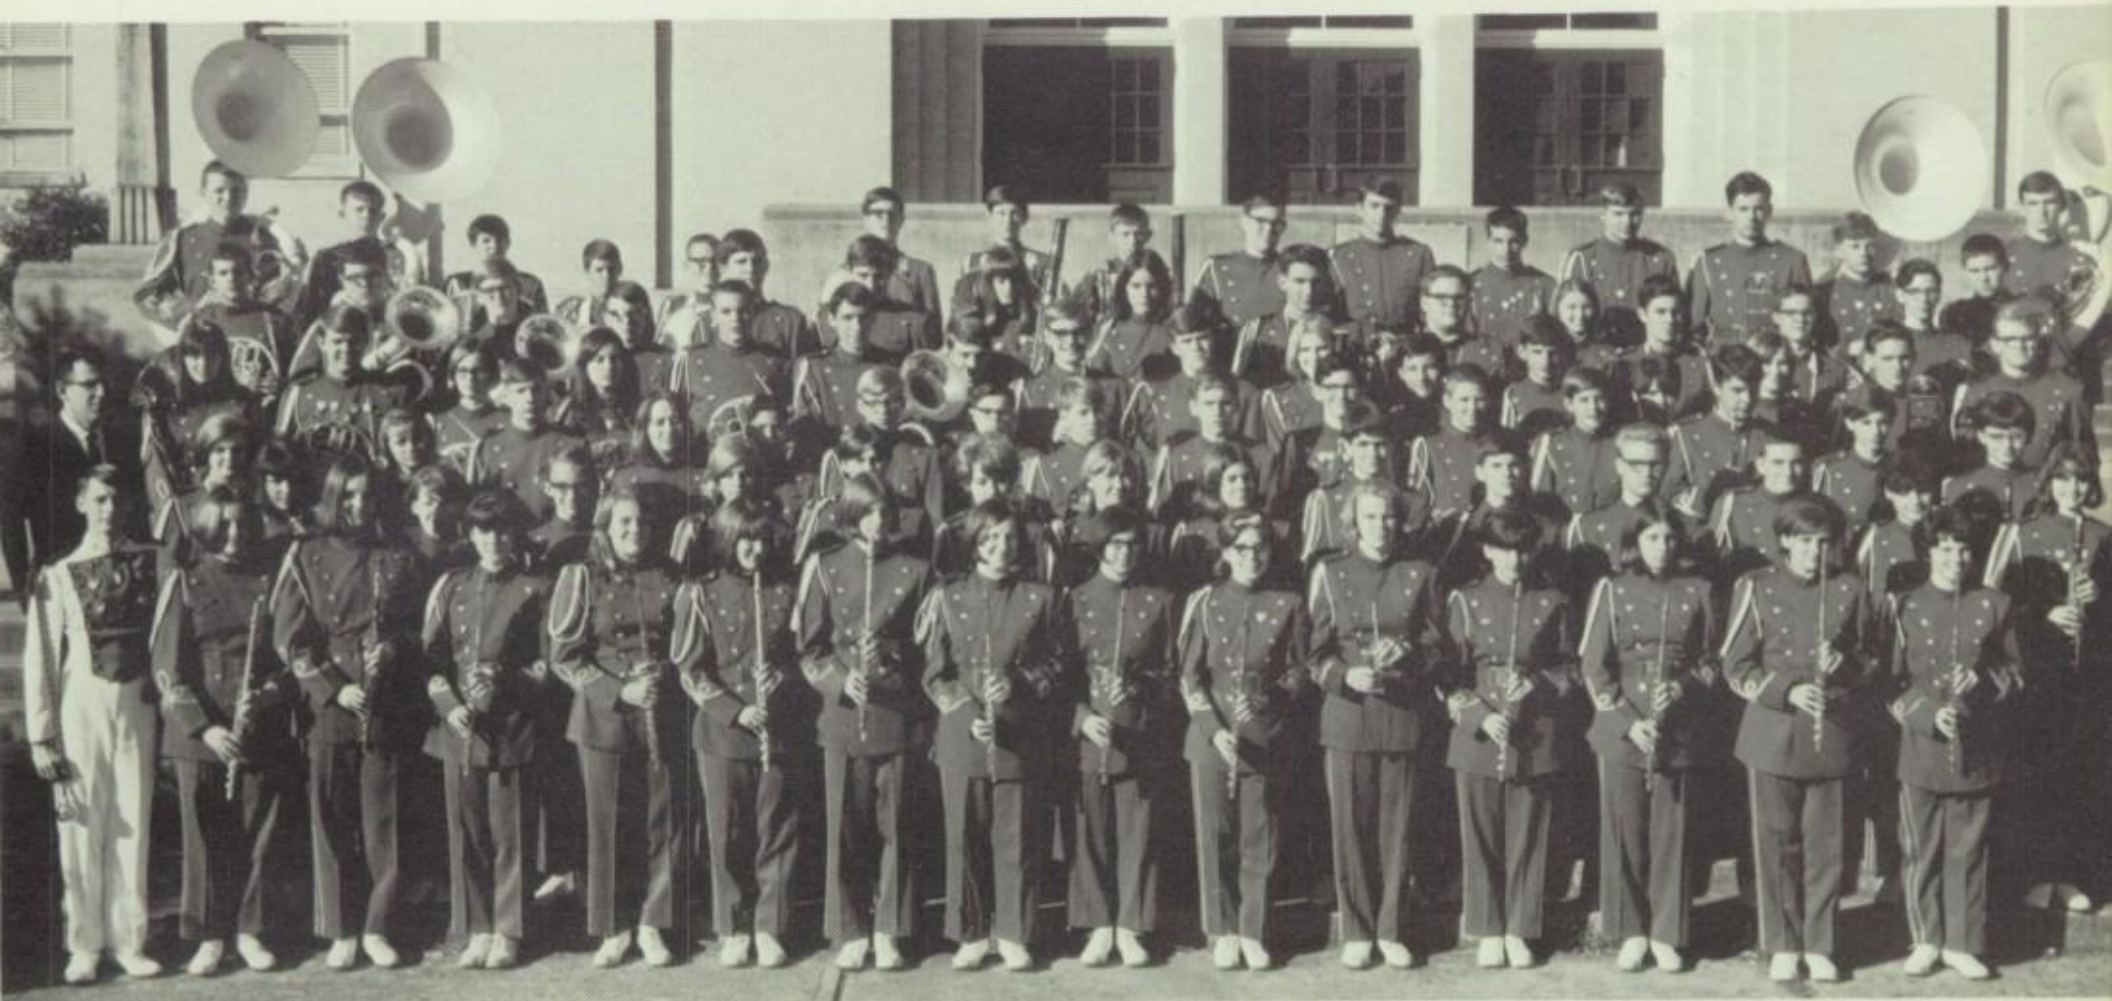

On Awards Day members receive recognition for their services.

OFFICERS: Gerald Wall, Mrs. Sistrunk, sponsor, Errol Alvey, Wayne Huhn, Jenny Phillips (SEATED).

The card catalogue is an aid in finding books.

The Brookhaven High School Band

The Brookhaven High School Band, under the direction of Mr. Cecil G. Trant-ham, has represented our school well this year in a variety of worthwhile activi-ties. During the half times at ballgames students and fans alike enjoyed the enter-taining band shows. The pep band really boosted school spirit during pep meets. The band did a fine job at the annual Christmas and spring concerts and at state competition.

Besides being capable representatives of our school in 1966-67 at District and State Choral Festivals, the members of the BHS Glee Club, under the direction of Mr. David R. Moulton, presented concerts during Christmas and spring. Chapel programs at school gave the chorus, the sextette, and even the audience opportunities to display their talents. In a unique Christmas program Mr. Moulton dressed up as Santa Claus and led the student body in songs. This year the Chorus proved one of the school's most active organizations.

The Preparation

Weeks before two o'clock of the afternoon of October 14, the Seniors of '67 started gathering ideas which would develop into the best Homecoming B. H. S. has ever seen. A variety of committees was appointed and the actual work was started. Susan Hobbs, Larry Ratliff, and Mike Posey brought into reality the world of pop art in a cleverly arranged stage setting. The search for appropriate costumes stretched from grandmother's attic to the closets of our friends. Numerous dance practices with Stella Malta, our choreographer, and hectic rehearsals in the auditorium helped polish our talents.

Then the big moment came...

The Program

The afternoon festivities were presided over by Scotty Oberschmidt, our class president, with Mr. Roach and Mr. Tramel assisting. Vivid accounts highlighting the activities of the honored classes were given, and various Seniors momentarily revitalized the years gone by. At this time a formal presentation of our queen and her maids was made. Following the auditorium program a lovely reception was given in the cafeteria. At this time former students and visitors had a chance to visit with one another, and to meet our Homecoming Court.

Staff members gave valuable assistance to editors.

Last spring a group of inexperienced seniors were elected by their class to produce the 67 OLE BROOK. From that day to the final moment of annual distribution, the task of creating the best annual was in their hands.

From clinics, other yearbooks, and out of their own creativity, ideas were sought and developed. A theme was selected and a cover was chosen. Proof, croppers, gutter, and lay-out then came to have new meanings as photographs and copy were arranged for the pages. A genuine effort was made to cover all phases of student life. Finally the finished product was presented to the student for his approval.

All the time: The cheerleaders keep that spirit high.

Panthers Of '66

In years past Brookhaven has always played the best high school teams in the state. It is usually out-sized and out-manned. This year the '66 Panthers showed that even though they were small they had what it took to make a GREAT football team--Pride,

T.D. Club Presents Yearly Banquet

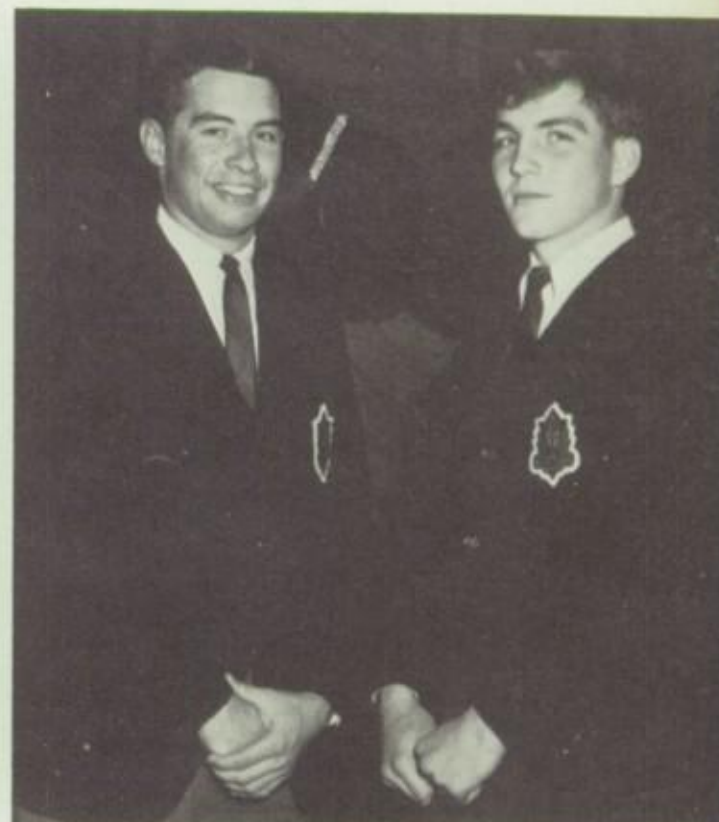

Featured speakers and Touchdown Club officials: Fred Schoenrock, E. F. Burris, Charles MacArthur, Lamar Bullard, Don "Scooter" Purvis, W. D. Lofton, Paul Moyer, and A. L. Hoff.

Every year the Touchdown Club gives invaluable assistance to the football program. This year the T. D. Club gave the squad a portable water cooler and weights. It also sponsored a trip to the L.S.U. vs. Florida game in Baton Rouge. A most successful season was wound up by the Touchdown Club's annual banquet.

Lively pep meets highlighted Fridays during the football season. At these the cheerleaders presented clever skits, displayed colorful posters, and led in hardy cheers. One of the year's most memorable events was our tremendous outside pep meet before the Provine game.

Racing on field before the team, the cheerleaders set the pace for the pep section at the games. They provided

Panthers In Action

Our basketball team this year had a very successful season, although a lot of bad luck. We are proud of them and our new coach, Mel Edmunds, a former Brookhaven star.

With a large number of returning lettermen we look forward to an even better season next year. The Panthers always fought to the last second causing many thrilling and spectacular games. Though it was not a winning season, the Panthers had several overtime games and upset many higher ranked teams.

In Memoriam

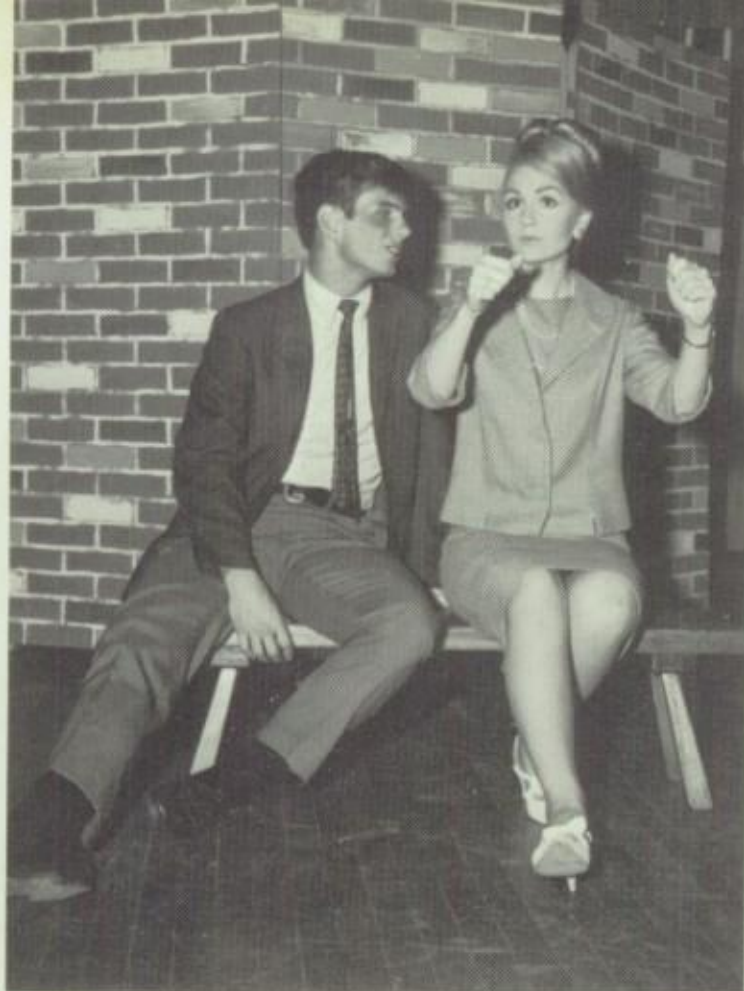

Cyndee Boadwee

April 13, 1949—April 5, 1967

"Her laughter and zest for living
Were as gay as the daisies she loved."

--Patsy Commander

The Annual Staff would like to dedicate this supplement to the memory of Cyndee Boadwee, a former member of the class of 1967. Although she has passed from us, we remember her with tenderness. Her laughter, her enthusiasm, and her wit will hold a special place in our hearts as we look back on all the good times we had together.

"Grace, let's go to the mountains tonight. "

"Heave ho, me hearties! "

Down With The Flag, Boys"

The Class of 1967 did not present just another senior play; it presented the best play that Brookhaven had seen in years, "Rally 'Round the Flag, Boys". On performance nights the entire cast and crew realized that once again the Class of '67 had shown its greatness. Not only was a new singing star, Jerry Burris, born; but also Gary Hutson, the replacement for Peter Fonda, was discovered.

"I'm giving you your ring back for the last time. "

"It's been a lot of laughs. "

Spring Sports

With the arrival of spring at B.H.S. the sports whirl came into full swing. On any afternoon an innocent passer-by might have seen the girls running laps, the tennis team practicing serves, or the baseball team leaving for Legion Field. Our school was well represented in each phase of spring athletics. Once again we captured the district championship in tennis, and the track team had participants in both district and state meets, with our girls placing in the state competition.

Graduation— The Long Awaited Day

On May 26 the Class of '67 took a last walk down the aisle of B.H.S. Following the impressive program presented by the honor graduates, the class gift, individual awards, and scholarship winners were announced. For each class member there was a personal feeling of accomplishment as he was presented his diploma. Many smiled and a few cried as the Class of 1967 brought its graduation to an end by singing the alma mater.

Completed—A Sketch Of A School Year

As the school term comes to a close, and the annual staff puts away its pencils, pens, and paint brushes, we hope that this year has been a memorable one for each student at B. H. S. We have tried in this annual to create with words and pictures a vivid sketch of the year gone by. Now, with the help of our advisers, the contributions of our sponsors, and the sincere dedication of our staff, we present what we hope you will consider a job well done.

If in later years, when turning through the pages of your 1967 OLE BROOK, you can recall and reminisce about the wonderful happenings of this year, then we the staff will feel that we have done our job and mastered our purpose.

Looking back upon '66-'67 and forward to what lies ahead, we would like to leave this thought with graduating seniors and also underclassmen, who will someday be graduating:

"This is not the end. It is not even the beginning of the end. But it is, perhaps, the end of the beginning."

-- Winston Churchill
